Carrie Lee Hall
Valedictorian

To be selected valedictorian is the highest honor a high school graduate can achieve in his endeavor for the best possible education. The student who received this honor during her high school year is Carrie Lee Hall, who attained a scholastic grade point average of 3.78 of the possible 4.00.

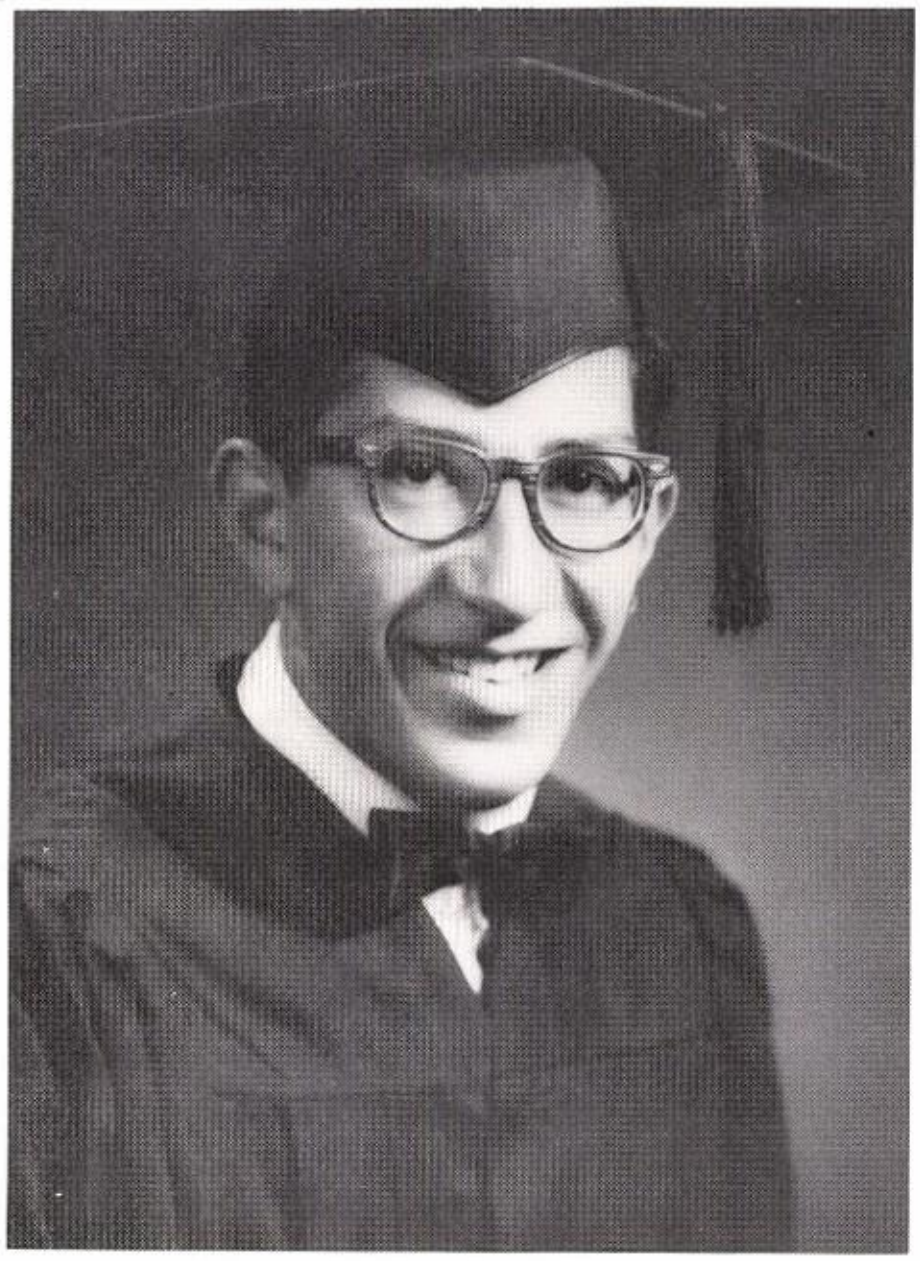
Achievements which have shown Carrie's scholastic abilities include her being a California Scholarship Federation Sealbearer (life membership), Bank of America Trophy winner in Liberal Arts, Bank of America Certificate winner in Social Sciences, and Homemaker of Tomorrow award winner. Furthermore, she recently placed as semi-finalist in the University of California Regents Scholarship Program and also was semi-finalist in the California State Scholarship Program.

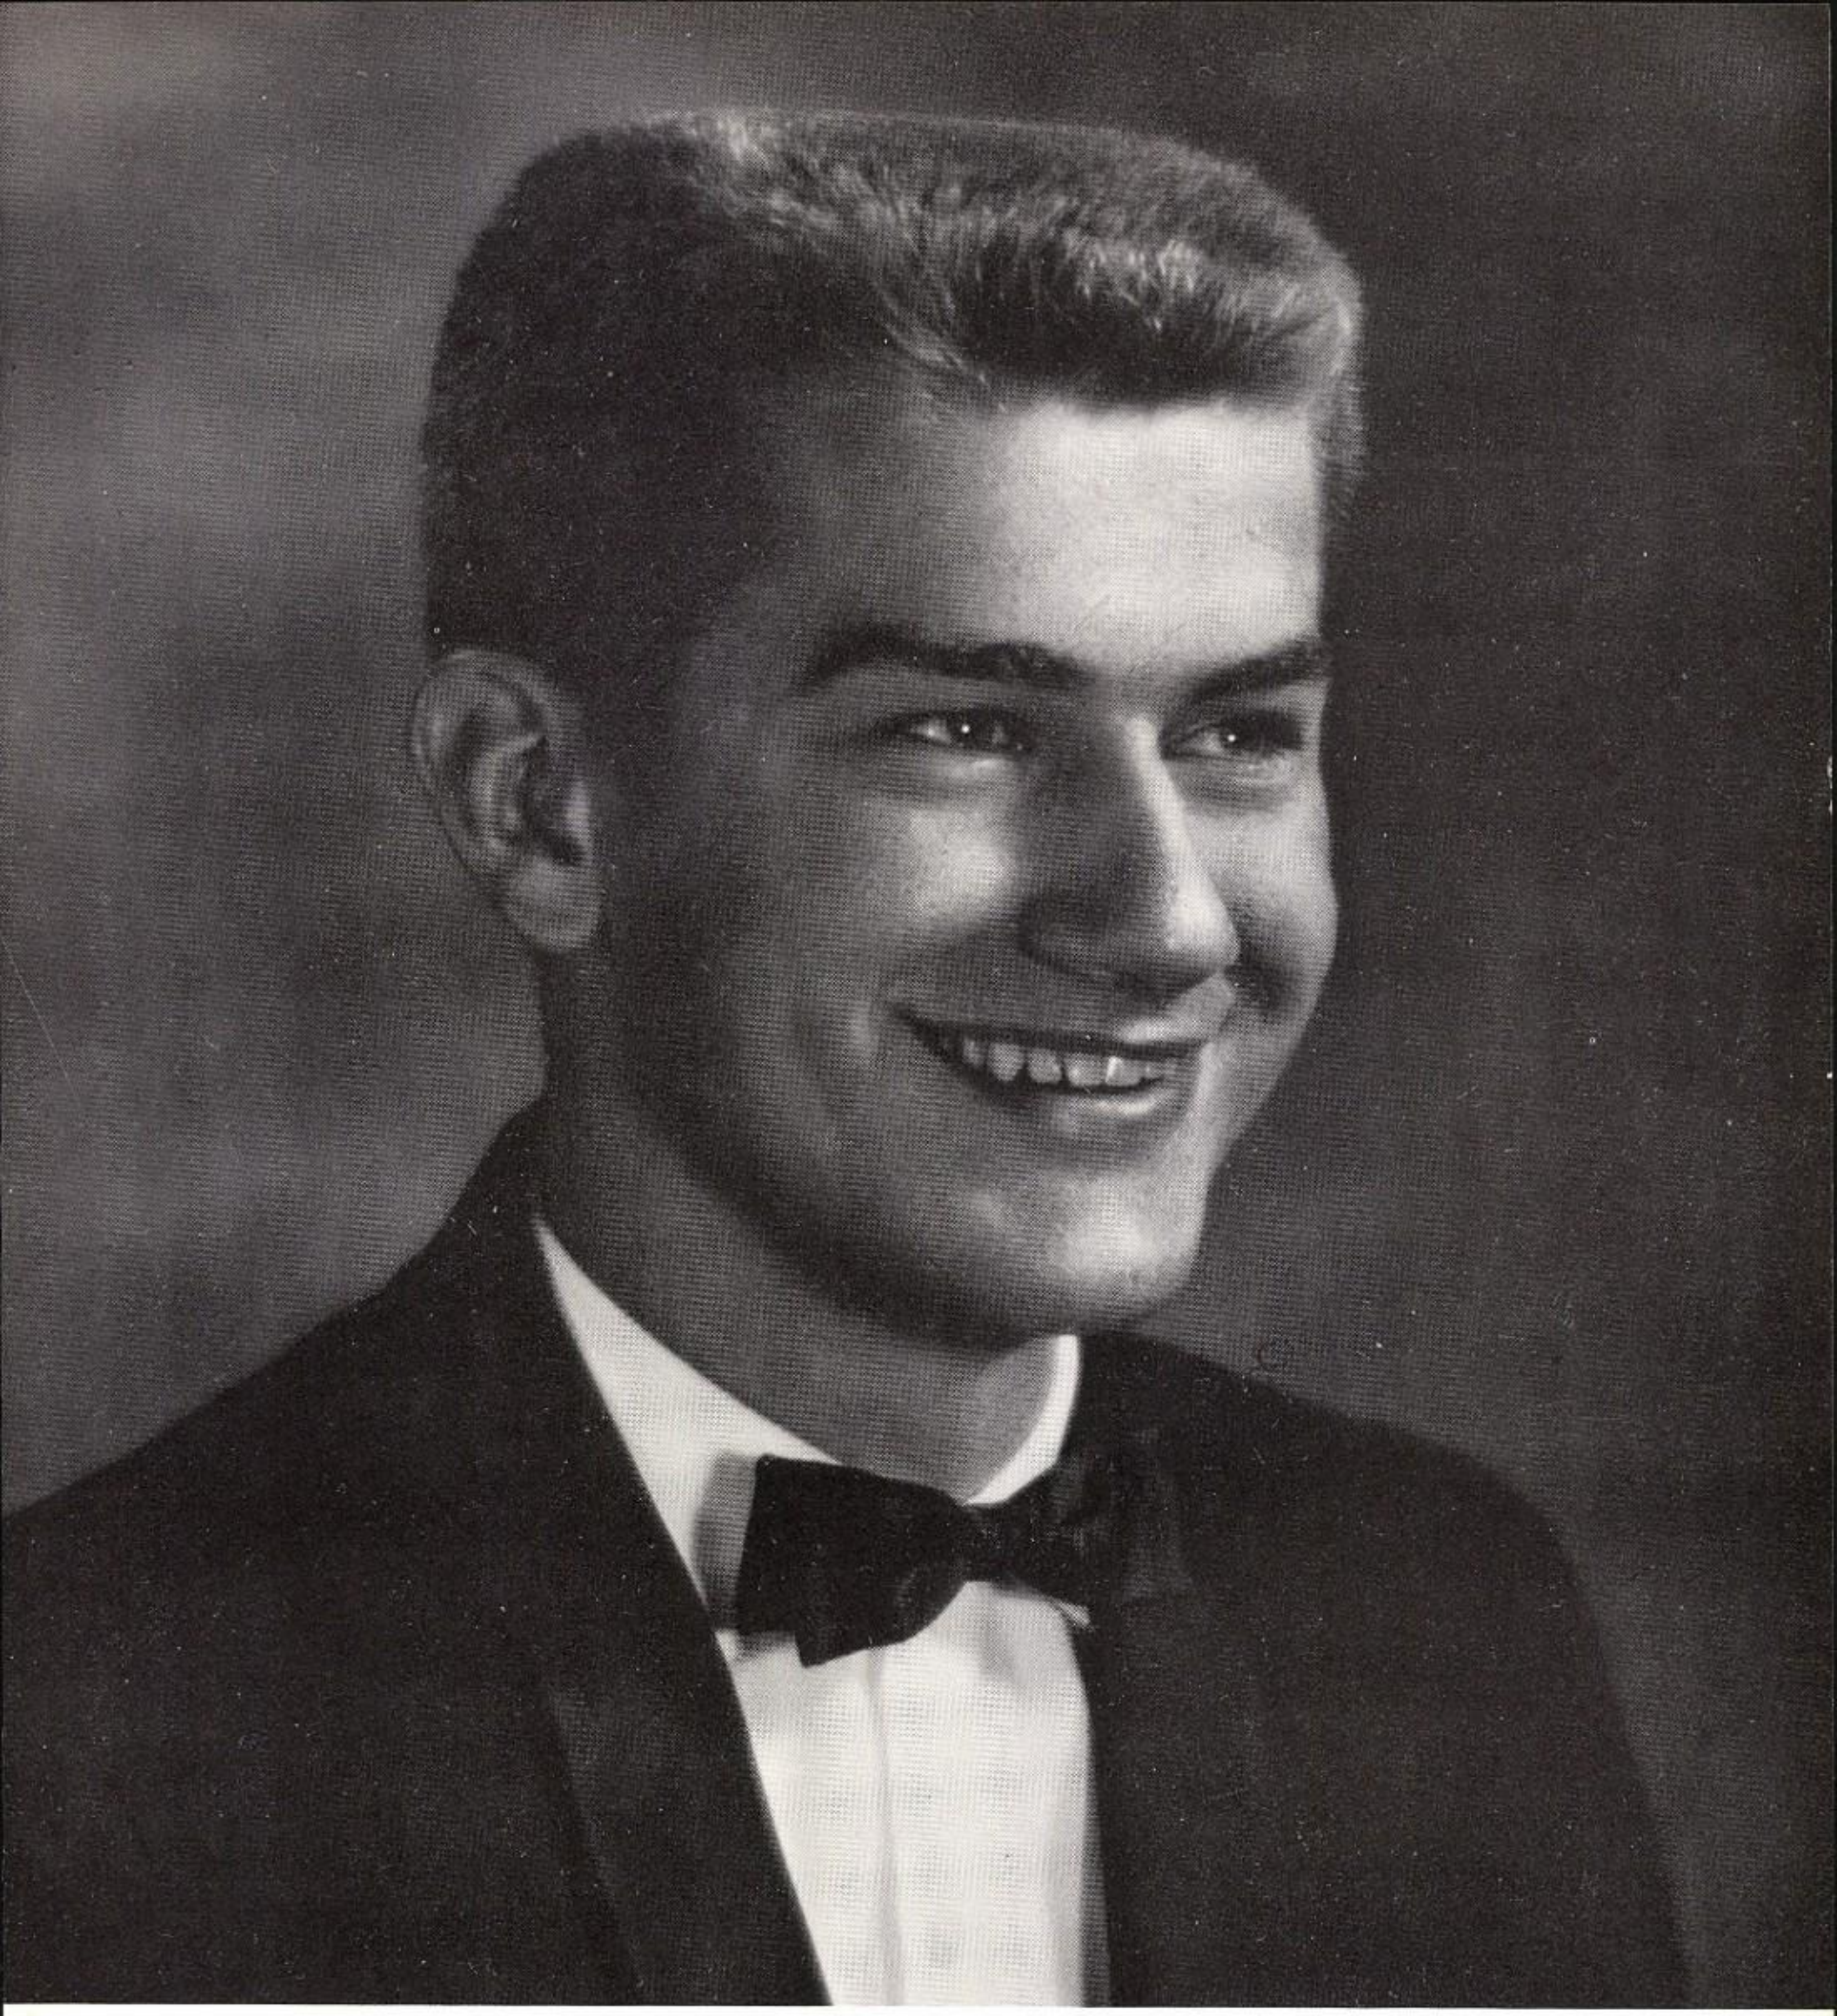
Carrie is active in extracurricula activities. She belongs to Future Teachers' Club, AFS, CSF, and National Honor Society.

Luigi Favero
Salutatorian

The salutatorian award is the second highest scholastic award given a graduating senior. Luigi Favero, having achieved a scholastic grade point average of 3.61, has been named the salutatorian for the Class of '63. As such, he will deliver the salutatory address.

In addition to this scholastic achievement, he was the former junior class president, is a member of CSF, AFS, Foreign Language Club, chess team, and math team. Luigi recently received a $200 savings bond for winning first place in the Fourth Annual Central Math Contest at Sunnyvale, and he placed as semi-finalist in the 1963 National Honor Society Scholarship Program.





American Field Service Student

American Field Service foreign student, in 1962-1963, Willi Viktor Bluemel has been living with Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Christensen, and his American brother, Bill. Willi, whose hometown is West Berlin, Germany, likes to play chess, collect stamps, read, row, and swim. He also took part in the Senior play.

"I enjoyed going to North High; especially because I got to know some wonderful people. It is not easy for me to say good-bye, and I shall always remember my friends here and the wonderful times I have had."
